Biography

Carol Collett is a national award-winning quilter, fiber artist, and teacher who resides in Scottsdale, AZ. Carol developed a passion for sewing at the age of seven; she made her first quilt in 1993. Carol's talents extend to quilt making, mixed media, wearable art, and doll making. Carol was a finalist in the nation 2006 $100,000 Quilting Challenge. In 2001 Carol won First Place in a national quilt contest sponsored by Quilts and Other Comforts, and in 2004, she won a ribbon at the NQA Show. She has won numerous ribbons since 2000 in Arizona Quilt Guild Shows. Carol's work has been published in the following publications: American Quilter; Haute Handbags; and Apronology. Carol has taught in AZ quilt shops, the American Sewing Guild and Quilt Camp in the Desert. Carol was a long-arm quilter for seven years.

Before moving to Scottsdale in 1996, Carol resided in northern Virginia. Before retiring in 1996, Carol had a 23-year career in the United States Senate. For many years she was Manager of the Senate Employment Office and retired from the position of Human Resources Director for the office of Senate Sergeant at Arms. After moving to Scottsdale Carol worked for five years for former Vice President Dan Quayle. Carol is married, the mother of one daughter and two grandchildren.
